Managing Director Departure

The Board of Drillsearch Energy Limited (ASX:DLS) advises that Mr David Williams has finished with the Company today. Mr Williams leaves the Company to take up an appointment as President of Heathgate Resources, an Adelaide based uranium miner.

The Company wishes Mr Williams well in his new venture and thanks him for the time and effort he has put in to bring Drillsearch to this stage.

The Board is well advanced in its search for a replacement for Mr Williams and anticipates making an announcement on this in the near future. In the interim Peter Simpson will act as Executive Chairman until the new Managing Director commences.
